COUNCILMAN MOONEY REPORTS ADVISABILITY OF CITY MANAGER

Pointing out that a city manager form of government leads to more efficient use of the tax dollar, Councilman E. J. Mooney gave a report Monday on the advisability of a city manager for Daly City at the meeting of the Daly City Council.

An ordinance calling for the city manager set-up was introduced and will be considered at the next meeting June 27.

Mooney stated that in cities which had this form of government, the tax dollar was handled more judiciously, leaving more funds for such things as recreational facilities.

The rapid growth of Daly City has produced an administration problem where most of the council members feel something should be done to keep up with the growth.

Mooney stated that the city manager form of government would coordinate parts of the city government so that their work is better correlated.

In giving the background of the city manager system, Mooney related that the first such system was adopted in 1908 in Stanton, Virginia and that from that time until 1948, 862 cities adopted that form of government, including 52 cities in California. The system has proved a great benefit in Delano, San Mateo, Menlo Park, Hillsborough, and South San Francisco.

Mooney also pointed out that the general belief that a city manager should be someone with civil engineer's credentials, did not hold true, but that a man with executive experience, and some engineering background proved most efficient in most cases.

IRISH PLAYER FEATURES O.L.P.H. PICNIC JUNE 26

Some very special entertainment will highlight the Parish picnic of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church to be held at Rosotti Brothers Park, six miles west of Santa Cruz avenue, Menlo Park, Sunday, June 26.

Top billing goes to Coln O'Hanrahan, fresh from Ireland, who will be making his first public appearance in the United States playing the Uillean pipes. He is a brother of England's leading cinema actor, who under the screen name of Kieron Moore starred in the British production "Man About the House," which was widely acclaimed by film critics during its recent showing in San Francisco.

Jim Cummins, president of the Market Street Van & Storage Company, who is sponsoring O'Hanrahan, has hinted that Bing Crosby is interested in his protege and may be on hand to measure his talent.

The Holy Name Society of the Parish is in charge of the picnic, with its president, Dick Ennis, serving as general chairman. Interest has been so great that Ennis has found it necessary to expand the program to take care of the record breaking gathering.

Advance reservations on the special Greyhound buses for those who do not have private transportation will be accepted and tickets sold in the vestibule of the church after all the masses on Sunday, June 19, only. Ennis desires to stress that transportation on the Greyhound buses which will leave the church entrance 10:30 a.m. on Picnic Day is strictly limited and it will not be possible to accept reservations after June 19.

George Hopman Is Appointed City Building Inspector

George Hopman number one man on the civil service list, was appointed building inspector effective as of June 16 after the Daly City Council approved the Civil Service Board of Review's report on the building inspector examination at their meeting on Monday night.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Paul Green, Councilmen Mel Battye, Fred Bertetta, A. Gaggero and Ed Mooney, City Attorney Frank B. Blum, City Engineer R. A. Klassen and City Clerk B. C. Ross.

The council also authorized the mayor and city clerk to sign an agreement with the State Division of Highways, budgeting $11,000 of gas tax mone to be expended on street maintenance during the 1949-50 fiscal year.

The mayor and city clerk were also authorized to purchase portions of three lots from the Catholic Archbishop to be used for the extension of Brunswick street. They were also authorized to execute a contract with the Daly City garbage company calling for a 60 cent monthly garbage charge to be collected by the city and granting further services to garbage users.

The council received a petition from A. Oddstad and W. Lagomarsino requesting annexation to Daly City of portions of two blocks of unincorporated county territory, to be designated as Hillside Manor No. 3. June 27 was set as the date for hearing on the annexation petition.

JOE DOUGHERTY ATHLETIC HEAD FOR BOYS' CLUB

Joseph B. Dougherty, star athlete of Tulsa University and the University of San Francisco, was appointed athletic director of the Daly City Boys' Club at a meeting held at the club quarters Tuesday evening, June 14.

Joe, as he is popularly known, received his preliminary education at Jefferson Grammar school and Sherman High school in Texas. In high school he captained the varsity football squad in his senior year, aside from earning three letters in said sport. After completion of two years at the University of Tulsa where he starred in football, he enlisted in the Marine Corps. Upon completion of his boot camp training, Joe was assigned as combat conditioning instructor under Lt. Col. R. E. Handley.

Dougherty played football for one year with the San Diego Marines and one year for the El Toro Marines. He was line coach for the Santa Barbara Corp Air Station in 1945. Upon discharge from service in June 19, 1946, he entered the University of San Francisco where he participated in football during his Junior and Senior years. In 1948 he coached the University of San Francisco football team, a job which he is still assigned to.

One of the biggest moments in Joe's life was when he said "I do" to Miss Frances Phillips back in 1945. They have one child, Cynthia Ann.

Joe maintains that no job is too tough to handle and would like to have every youngster in Daly City join the Boys' Club to partiicpate in the many activities afforded.

Being a new club, many things are still needed in the line of recreational facilities and amusements for the boys. If any of the residents of Daly City have jig saw puzzles, games, magazines, or other athletic equipment which they are not using the boys' club would appreciate them.

"NO FIREWORKS!" POLICE WARN

It's against the law to sell or explode fireworks of all kinds in Daly City — and that law will be strictly enforced on the Fourth of July and all year 'round, the police department warned citizens today. The law was passed in 1936 in the interests of public safety.

According to Ordinance No. 201,

"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to store, manufacture, sell or discharge or explode any fireworks or firecrackers, or any explosives of any kind, or any smilar agency, that creates noise or fire within the City of Daly City, provided, however, that this ordinance shall not apply to blasting done within municipal limits under license from the city. . ."

The ordinance provides for a fine not to exceed $300 or imprisonment in the city jail for not longer than three months for violators.

The free public fireworks display scheduled for July 4 at Marchbank Park is excepted from the law because it will be officially sponsored by the city and carefully superintended by the fire department. Veterans' organizations have been invited to participate in the nighttime demonstration.

Elementary School Board Approves Tentative Budget For School Year '49-50

The proposed budget for 1949-50 school year was tentatively adopted by the Jefferson Elementary School board last Thursday at a special meeting for that purpose. Since the amount of the State appropriation has not as yet been released, no definite amounts for teachers' salary, maintenance, capital outlay and other factors could be set, according to Superintendent James E. Snell. Figures on the budget will be released when the amount of the state appropriation is known, Snell said.

At the meeting the board authorized Snell to call for bids for the purchase of a 73-passenger school bus with funds for this included in the budget. Other funds included in the budget were to be used to move the shop and home economics room to the Thornton School basement and that Snell employ a general supervisor of instruction at a salary not to exceed $4500 plus a traveling allowance.

It was also moved to proceed with improving the lighting of classrooms in so far as possible and that the first school to be improved be Woodrow Wilson Primary.

The last meeting of the fiscal year for the board of trustees will be held Thursday, June 24.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS COMMENCEMENT WILL BE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT

With "Your Community and You" as the theme of the graduation exercises, some 91 students from the Jefferson elementary schools will receive their diplomas Friday night at the Jefferson high school, where most of them will continue their education in the next four years to come. Superintendent James E. Snell will present the diplomas.

After the overture by the Jefferson School District orchestra, a salute to the flag will be led by Donna Kollman, followed in turn by the singing of "America."

Joanne Van Vliet of Jefferson will give a talk, "The Heart of a Community," after which Marjorie Duncan, also of Jefferson will recite "Our Community," an original program. The graduates will then sing "Soldiers' Chorus."

A code of the Good American will make up the second portion of the program. Participating will be Grace Domenici of Jefferson, introduction; Clair Curry of Woodrow Wilson, Law of Self-Control; Bob Gerhow of Crocker, Law of Good Health; Jim Fernandez, Jefferson, Law of Kindness; La Vonne Anderson, Woodrow Wilson, Law of Sportsmanship; Shirley Filippo, Crocker, Law of Self-Reliance; Margaret Ratto, Jefferson, Law of Duty; Charles Olson, Woodrow Wilson, Law of Reliability; Peggy Joy Lee, Crocker, Law of Truth; LaVerne Shurgin, Jefferson, Law of Workmanship; Ronald Charlton, Woodrow Wilson, Law of Teamwork, and James Butenhof, Crock-

GAS MASKS GO UP IN SMOKE—A Chicago war surplus dealer adds a few more "white elephants" to the fire as he burns two million new gas masks, which originally cost the government $6,500,000. The dealer bought the masks for five cents each, but was unable to sell them. They were originally purchased by the government for the wartime protection of civilians.

Legion Names Don Lunghi To Attend Boys' State

Don Lunghi of the Jefferson high school has been chosen by Daly City Post No. 410, American Legion, to attend Boys' State this year. Lunghi was selected by the post's chairman, Stanford Hannah, to attend the affair at Sacramento.

A special train will leave San Francisco Saturday morning, June 18, with Lunghi and the other boys from the area aboard. They will arrive in Sacramento the same morning where they will spend a week with student leaders from the state. The boys are chosen for character, leadership, and scholarship.

At Sacramento they will see the state government in action. They will set up a "state" of their own and will meet members of the legislature and Governor Earl Warren. Don will return June 25.

Prior to their departure, the boys from San Mateo county will get together for a dinner at the Claramar Restaurant in San Mateo June 15.

FATHER'S DAY — BRIEF GLORY

Once a year the family pauses briefly in its daily routine to acknowledge that: 1. They know that father's around even if they don't pay much attention to him; 2. They appreciate all the nice things he does for them even though they usually don't say much about it; and 3. Dad is really a swell guy even if they seem to think otherwise at times.

The day for the pause and for the expression of points 1, 2 and 3 is next Sunday, June 19. It's known as Father's Day.

On that occasion the head of the house (well, they call him that, anyway) will grin a bit self consciously and his face will glow in the reflection of a brilliant tie (a gift from the family) while he hears the eulogy in his honor. He'll be surprised to learn what a wonderful fellow he is.

On June 20, he will be himself again and on July 1, he will pay the bill for the tie the family gave him.

A DIFFERENT ANGLE

To keep the record straight it should now be reported that the "debtors' prison" cases in Vermont were not what they seemed to be.

An investigation by the American Civil Liberties Union revealed that the men were not in prison for debt alone. "The men were imprisoned," says the ACLU report, "because they were found guilty of a wilful and malicious act which resulted in personal injuries for which no compensation was made. They were given full hearing . . . and were represented by competent and experienced counsel."

The investigation also brought out that the men were not in danger of being incarcerated for life. The court can release them whenever it is felt that the punishment has been sufficient for the offenses. One of the central issues of the case is the unwillingness of the men to answer charges that they fraudulently transferred assets to escape paying the judgments against them.

All this puts a different complexion on the whole affair and calls for apologies to the State of Vermont.

END CONTROLS?

Credit controls appear headed for the junk pile on June 30. They are scheduled to terminate automatically on that date unless Congress extends them. Washington reports say that Congress is in no such mood. This means that after June 30 there will be nothing in the law to prevent a car or refrigerator dealer from selling on terms of one dollar down and a dollar a week.

Certainly, terms will be designed to fit the pocketbooks of many people now unable to buy the more expensive items because down payments are too heavy and the period of repayment still too short. Fears that freedom of credit might bring widespread abuses are not justified by past experience. While some excesses are bound to occur, the majority of people have long shown that they have sense enough to keep their installment buying in line with their ability to pay.

Recently, E. A. Mattison, executive vice president of Bank of America, pointed out that even during the depressions of the early 20's and 30's, the losses on installment sales did not exceed 1½ per cent. Freed from restrictive credit controls, America's economy should be better able to meet the challenge of the current trend in business and industry.

General Pershing P.T.A. Dinner Was A Success

The General Pershing P. T. A. dinner, held June 8, was pronounced a success, both by the attending diners and the members who planned it and worked to make it so. To Mrs. John Eason and Mrs. Lyle Ingersoll go most of the credit for cooking the dinner and dishing it up. The food was tastefully cooked and nicely served.

The flower arrangement down the center of each table by Mrs. R. F. Traxler and Mrs. Raymond Gross was very attractive and added to the enjoyment of the hungry diners.

Others who helped were: Mr. Harry Riedi, of course, who, as usual was on hand to help in any way he could. Mesdames George Freeland, A. S. White, E. K. Whinnen, D. C. Gensel, Robert Pool and daughter, Arlene.

Proceeds from the dinner only lacked five dollars of paying for the new stove, which was beyond the hopes of the executive board when it was planned. It is hoped the new stove will be in place for the next social affair held at the school.

On Monday, June 6 Mrs. George Freeland represented General Pershing P. T. A. at the Presidents meeting held at the Peninsula Avenue School in Burlingame.

A plea was made by Mrs. H. P. Eder of Burlingame to all PTA's to support the program of help for deaf children being planned for the future. Mrs. Eder pointed out the great need of this program to aid these unfortunate children. The program is definitely in keeping with the ideals and objectives of the California Congress of Parents tnd Teachers and should receive the support of all units.

The District School Aid Program was also discussed. This program is to furnish aid to children who want to go on to higher education but who cannot do so without outside financial help. It was requested that all units budget a certain amount to help with tnis program in 17th District.

Chairmen for 17th District were introduced. Among them was Mrs. James Jordan of General Pershing P. T. A., who will be Mothersinger Chairman for the 17th district.

Valetta Ennis, the new past president, in her final address thanked the club for its superb cooperation and loyalty to her during the year, and gave the financial report.

Esther Nolan, hospitality chairman for the evening, assisted by the mothers of the seventh grade, had the tables decorated with beautiful sweet peas and sweet william with trellis of maiden hair fern, and served a most tasty luncheon.

Past President Isabel Liberti presented Valetta Ennis with a lovely place setting of sterling silver from the mothers club in appreciation of her services during the past year. The officers presented the out-going president with a beautiful cup and saucer.

Outside guests were as follows: R. J. Ennis, president of the Holy Name Society, who addressed the club during the repast, and William Carrington, vice-president, who also gave a report on a recent joint function.

New Supermarket Taking Shape

After existing with no front for a few days, Lucca Market, 7370 Mission street, is beginning to shape up into the supermarket it will become some time in July.

Business is going on as usual during "Operation Face-Lift," and Manager Tom Stanghellini has found little spare time for eating or sleeping while supervising the alterations to the building.

The entire front of the building had been torn out, but is now being replaced with what Stanghellini promises will be the most modern facade of any market in town.

Interior of the new Lucca Supermarket will be entirely new also, with a new refrigeration system, new counters, cash registers, and other fixtures.

DON MOSSI PLAYS BEFORE STRONG LOCAL CONTINGENT IN SAN JOSE

Don Mossi, pitcher with the Bakersfield Indians and former member of the Colma Boys Club, did not lack enthusiastic rooters last Wednesday evening when his team encountered the Visalia Cubs in the San Jose Stadium.

The boys club, together with their coaches, P. Garner and V. Baher, their sponsor, Joe Sarto, and a large number of Jefferson Union high school students traveled by chartered bus to the stadium that evening.

Mossi, starting hurler, allowed only one hit in the first seven innings. In the last two frames he tired a little, and the San Jose team collected four hits, including a home run, and capitalized on three Bakersfield errors to score five runs.

However, the Indians garnered 12 hits off the two San Jose pitchers. Four San Jose errors helped, and final score of 11 to 5 in favor of Bakersfield brought Mossi's record to nine wins against two losses for the season so far.

There was little doubt in the minds of the other fans in the stadium as to the reason for the appearance of the local contingent. From reserved seats just above the Indian dugout they made their presence known to everyone by their lusty and frequent cheers.

Sarto, commenting on the game, said, "We all expect big things of Mossi, and sincerely hope that he will get all the breaks which he so richly deserves in his new career. His former teammates on the Colma Boys Club will continue to follow his games and records with extreme interest, and will give him spectator support at every opportunity."

Mossi attended Jefferson Union high school, where he made an outstanding record as an athlete.

Jaysee Students Plan Summer Course In Yosemite

A four weeks summer course in Yosemite Valley, July 5 to August 2, is planned by the San Mateo Junior College with Samuel Elkins of the science department in charge. The group, earning 3 units of college credit, will camp in the valley, sharing camp equipment and camp work, and will make trips to surrounding areas as well as studying the birds, trees, animals, flowers, and the geology of the valley.

Elkins, who took a group of students to Death Valley recently, and who has spent 16 summers in Yosemite Valley, is now enrolling students at the science building of the college. He announces that Mrs. Elkins will accompany the party and that Dick Cresta will be the student field assistant.

The students will arrange their own transportation to and from the valley, though the college will help them and advise as to what they must take with them. The food cost is rated as $65 a person for the four weeks, though people who are to be in Yosemite anyway at that time may eat with their own party and not pay the student food charge.

The valley has a fine library and museum which will be used by the junior college students. Anyone eligible to enroll in a junior college may join the group.

A seven-day pack trip into the high Sierras is an optional feature of the program Elkins is arranging.

Alfred Puricelli's Body Found

The body of Alfred Puricelli, drowned last month at Thornton Beach, was found Wednesday at Fort Funston.

Alfred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Puricelli of the Geneva Bakery at 19 San Pedro road, was drowned April 23 while swimming with Al Lagomarsino.

The body was discovered by John Rives of 1134 Noe street San Francisco while he was walking along the beach near Fort Funston. He first saw it about 200 yards out in the water. He notified the police at the Olympic golf club in turn notified the coroner. Deputy Coroner Ray Brooks recovered the body.

Identification was made through three keys in the yellow bathing trunks on the body and through his dentist, Dr. Edward Boero of 49 Post street.

An inquest will be set at a later date. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 8:30 a.m. by Valente, Marini & Perata of 4840 Mission street. Mass will be at 9 a.m. in Holy Angels church at Colma, with entombment in Holy Cross Mausoleum.

Alfred, a member of the Colma Boys Club, is survived by three sisters, Josephine Merlo, Delphine Huston and Mary Puricelli in addition to his parents. He was employed at his father's bakery.

WHERE THE SPIRIT OF SERVICE BEGINS

One Coast-wide school system is for telephone people only—and better service for the West is the result

1. As this young lady learns to use a training switchboard, she'll also learn many things that will be mighty important to good service. All through her training she'll see how operators make courtesy and helpfulness a normal part of their jobs. And the same spirit is present as other telephone people learn their new skills.

2. On stubby poles like these, linemen learn to use their new climbing equipment. This is just one of the more than one hundred courses that telephone people study in towns large and small—up and down the Coast. In 1948, thousands of employees received training. That means thousands of men and women better able to furnish good service to you.

3. On-the-job-training here in the West is typified by this "student" who is learning the workings of a trouble indicator frame—an automatic detective that constantly makes sure the lines on its "beat" are giving good service. Even experienced employees take refresher courses like this to keep up-to-date . . . and keep learning their way up the ladder.

4. Good service for you comes from telephone people who know their jobs. You can help them serve you best by making sure you always have the right number in mind before calling, leaving a little time between calls, giving the called person time to answer.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company

Your telephone is one of today's biggest bargains

Some of the projects for little tots in Daily Vacation Church School might seem to an adult mind to be far removed from religion. For instance, these youngsters are putting together animal cut-outs!

Their teacher tells us that the lesson today was based on the truth; God created heaven and earth. Maybe you could listen to a discourse on that subject for an hour or more (and maybe you couldn't). But a child soon tires of listening . . . he needs a chance to put his hands to work.

And so these little hands are busily engaged in a bit of creative work of their own that will impress the lesson on their minds better than a thousand words.

Your child needs the advantage of, and the stimulation of religious education this summer. Enroll him in one of the Daily Vacation Church Schools that thousands of churches will conduct.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Record Auction To Be Staged

Acting Postmaster John F. Fixa stated today that the annual auction sale of unclaimed merchandise to be held in the Main Post Office, 7th and Mission Sts., starting June 21 will be one of the largest ever held in this office. "During the war years the San Francisco Post Office handled so much military mail that the loss because of damage or unmailable addresses was unprecedented, however the loss of articles in the mail today is still too great," said Fixa.

Nearly 6500 lots of articles will go on the block as postal employees auction off this accumulation of merchandise at 8:30 a. m. on June 21 and continue throughout the week until Saturday, June 25. A selection of the type of merchandise to be sold will be on display at the Main Post Office on Monday, June 20 at 9:30 a. m. These include cameras, electric razors, costume jewelry, toys, sporting goods, watches, clothing and many varied items.

Children's Health Home At San Mateo Can Accommodate More Convalescents Than Are Enrolled At Present Time

Something new in community appeals — a plea not to give, but to receive, was issued recently by officers of the Children's Health Home, formerly the San Mateo Preventorium, a local Community Chest agency.

According to Mrs. Ferdinand Stent, president of the organization, just 17 children are receiving care in the institution at present, while accommodations for 28 convalescent or children in ill health are available at the home, located at 515 E. Poplar avenue, San Mateo.

"We feel that the reason the home's full facilities are not being used is because the former name 'Preventorium' has led residents of the county to believe that the home is for the prevention of tuberculosis only," Mrs. Stent said.

Actually the home is for children who are convalescent from illnesses or who need building up physically, Mrs. Stent pointed out.

"We want the children for whom no other care is available," she declared. "Children who are sick enough to require bed care can be sent to hospitals, and children who live in normal, well-regulated homes can receive necessary attention from their families," the president asserted.

"The Children's Health Home is for the little 'in-betweens'," Mrs. Stent said. Often they are the products of broken homes, whose mental as well as physical well-being is endangered because of neglect or lack of proper medical care. "We nurse them back to health, teach them new health habits, help them to derive a better understanding of their own problems, and promote their moral, mental and physical welfare."

The children are housed in dormitories in the clean, spacious home, and receive board, lodging, laundry, dental and medical care. Recreation and supervised play and a carefully supervised diet are provided. Trained nurses are in constant attendance, and periodic physical examinations are given by a local physician. Classroom training in all elementary grades is given by an accredited teacher furnished by the board of education.

Boys and girls 6 to 14 years who are residents of San Mateo county are eligible for admittance on recommendation of a physician and examination by the home's attending doctor. Family income determines the fee, Mrs. Stent said, and those who cannot pay receive free care.

Mrs. Stent appealed to doctors, public health nurses, social welfare workers, and residents of the county to aid the Children's Health Home in its mission of restoring physically run-down children to radiant health. Application blanks for admittance may be secured from the superintendent of the home or from the San Mateo county department of public health and welfare.

Other contestants for office, however, had to fight opposition at the polls. Al Smurthwaite won as vice-president over Laura Chessman, Frank Druhan, and Jola Gorsuch, all of whom also wanted the job.

Dona Bybee beat Helen Barazza in the contest for secretary, and Wanda Sadler won out as treasurer over Jean Breckon.

Sierra Playgrounds

California's "back yard" is full of them

More than 120 lakes in the Sierra and Cascades are man-made. They were built by P. G. and E. as reservoirs for 56 hydroelectric plants whose generators are spun by falling water. Our reservoirs capture melting snow in the Spring, prevent damaging floods and wasteful runoff of precious water, and provide regulated release of the water for year-round stream flow. Many popular fishing streams otherwise would be dry during the summer and fall vacation season. All this, and low-cost power too!

At many places, such as beautiful Lake Almanor nestled at the base of Mount Lassen, P. G. and E. development has created resort areas enjoyed by thousands.

P. G. and E. works closely with the Fish and Game Commission . . . building fish ladders, planting trout, maintaining stream flow. We are fish conservation enthusiasts.

For the record

Hydroelectric plants do not consume water...they borrow it temporarily, then return it to the stream.

"Hydro" aids irrigation . . . holding back flood-waters in the Spring and making the water available when it's needed most in the dry crop-growing months.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15 — Chinese album music recordings, made locally, are now available in China town music stores. The album, containing four recordings of Cantonese operatic music based on an ancient Chinese legend, is manufactured by the Golden Star Radio Co.

The music, sung by the local Cantonese operatic star, Miss Sui Fei-fei, is based on the climactic scene from the opera "The White Snake." The title in translation is "Si-lum Offering Sacrifices at the Pagoda," considered the most poignant scene from this opera.

State To Get New Armory Site In San Francisco

The San Francisco board of supervisors has moved to enter an agreement permitting use of the main building of the Palace of Fine Arts in the Marina as a State armory.

At the same time, the board granted the state seven out of 42 acres making up the northern half of Fort Funston for use as an armory site.

The action was conditioned on the city's obtaining a clear title to the Palace and a grant of the Funston acreage from the federal government. The city's present title to the Palace of Fine Arts — last remaining structure of the Panama Pacific International Exposition in 1915 — contains a provision which permits the federal government to reclaim it on 24-hours' notice in the event of an emergency.

Food Storage

Light fades the colors of canned food making it less attractive and decreasing the vitamin content, specialists of the Agricultural Extension service point out. If foods are stored on light shelves an old window shade can be put in front of them to keep the light out. The shade can be raised or lowered to get supplies.

Calif. Taxpayers Assn. President Warns People Of San Mateo County They May Face Huge Tax Bill For Fiscal 1949-50

Warning that the 209,100 people of San Mateo county, on a per capita basis, face a total tax bill—federal, state, and local — of $104,550,000 for 1949-50, if government spending is not held in check, A. C. Hardison, of Santa Paula, president of California Taxpayers' association and farm leader, today called on the people of the county to join in a nationwide drive for all-out economy in government.

"Our elected representatives are interested in hearing from home," he declared.

Representatives of the people of the county include U. S. Senators Sheridan Downey and William F. Knowland, Congressman John Z. Anderson, State Senator Harry L. Parkman, and Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig.

"The current so-called economy drive in the U.S. Senate can best be described as 'faltering'," Hardison said. "The result so far of House and Senate action on the federal budget is almost nil in savings for the people.

"Any thorough-going reduction in the state's $1,060,000,000 budget proposal is being defeated, mainly by the 'pet project' device. New and higher state taxes threaten.

"Local government budgets up and down California are in varying stages of preparation. Some will be settled in June and July; all of them by early in August. Property tax rates must be fixed not later than September 1.

"This is a call to Californians to lead the nation and themselves out of the morass of government paternalism into the hard, but more satisfying, path of independence.

"It will mean renouncing some special benefits. It will mean going without some government services that seem desirable, but which will not be necessary.

"All over the earth, too many people today have their hands out—seeking something for nothing—and even we Californians are guilty.

"Now is the time to let our elected representatives — our congressmen, state legislators, county supervisors, city councilmen, school trustees — know that we want less taxes and we are willing to take less government to get less taxes. It is the only way the danger of an all-time high tax bill for California next year may be averted."

MORE FUEL USED

Driving an automobile against a strong head wind causes rapid fuel consumption because of the extra power required, according to the California State Automobile Association. Under such conditions, the fuel gauge should be watched carefully and the fuel supply replenished at frequent intervals.

University President Stresses Need For Fourth "R" In Present Day Education--- No Real Education Without Religion

Rev. William C. Gianera, S.J., president of the University of Santa Clara called for a "Renaissance In American Education" in an address to 800 alumni at the 98th annual homecoming day banquet held on the campus Sunday.

Father Gianera stated that "It is openly admitted that even in the elementary grades there must be a return to the 3 R's, but I assert that education in America needs more than that. What is needed is a 4th R, namely Religion, for there can be no real education without an appreciative study of God.

He called for a renewal of the study of the humanities: Latin, Greek, English, history and mathematics and a de-emphasis of those so called electives which merely give information and not formation to the mind.

Father Gianera stated that this thorough renaissance in the field of education can only be had when the fundamentals of the Natural Law — which in turn are but a reflex of the Divine Law — are instilled again in the hearts of men.

In summarizing his address Santa Clara's president stated that "The world is clamoring for peace —but there can be no real peace without the full recognition of the dignity of man, made to God's image, the sacredness of the family —the prime unit in society, and the inalienable rights inherent in both."

SHORT CUTS TO NORTHERN POINTS

For those wishing a short cut from the San Francisco Bay Area to U.S. Highway 99 and northern points, the following route is recommended by L. L. Norris, director of touring for the National Automobile Club. Divert from U.S. 40 approximately two miles east of Vacaville over an excellent paved and oiled macadam highway through Winters and Madison to a point 2.6 miles south of Dunigan where this route joins U.S. 99. This is a good, fast highway leading through an interesting agricultural country, and the motorist will save eight miles and encounter a minimum of traffic. One has to watch carefully for this through route as there are no highway markers indicating it.

ON TRIAL—Former State Department official Alger Hiss, above, is being tried in the New York U. S. District Court on two counts of perjury arising out of his testimony concerning the turning of State Department secrets over to Russian agents.

A Tip For Summer Showers

Lovely Joan Alexander, who plays Della Street on CBS's "Perry Mason," passes on this novel idea for shower gifts . . . a doll made out of practical kitchenware. Paint a cute face on the back of a kitchen spoon, back it with a dishmop for hair, and cover the "head" with a potholder kerchief. Then with picture wire, make a "body" with an egg-beater, small strainer, spatula, serving spoon, measuring spoons, potato-masher, and wooden fork. A dish-rag makes a shawl for the bodice, and dish-towels drape into a full skirt, topped off with a red checkered apron. The arms are made by wiring bundles of kitchen knives, forks, and spoons. This makes an attractive display for the shower, and every item will be of real use to the bride . . . if she can bring herself to take the doll apart!

New Oil Discovery Just Reported

The office of the California State Division of Mines has just reported a new major oil field has been discovered 5½ miles east of the present Cuyama (Russell Ranch) field located a year ago. Both areas were developed by the Richfield Oil Co.

The discovery well, which was brought into production May 4, came in at the rate of 5088 barrels of 34 gravity oil and 1,500,000 cubic feet of gas per day. The reservoir sand is reported to be similar to that of the Russell Ranch and White Rock areas. Over 300 feet of permeable oil sand was reported cored lying between 4100 and 4392 feet.

CROCKER

A realization that inventions have increased the speed of communication and transportation has been of interest to the L8-H7 grade group. Benjamin Franklin was postmaster general when our country was still a possession of Great Britain, and he held that office after the Revolution. In the first President's cabinet there was no postmaster general, but when the work became increasingly important he became a member of the President's group of advisers.

Seventh and eighth graders gained a great deal of practical knowledge from the film "Know Your Library," which showed procedure and practice to be followed in obtaining books or reference material from the public library. The actual use of the Dewey Decimal System was visualized by means of a human interest story. After the showing of the film, practical assignments were made to illustrate the actual practice shown in the film. Material which could be found in a dictionary was definitely well brought out in the film.

For the fourth consecutive week students of the fifth grade are the proud recipients of the "Thrift Banner."

An interesting display on the bulletin board of the Crocker School, is the pictures of the various classes in the building. These pictures are being sold to students who in years to come may look back to "school days."

The sixth graders enjoyed the film "Youth Takes to the Air," which answered many of the questions raised in the study of the unit "Travel by Air." As a culmination of the year's work an intensive review of the 3 R's is being stressed for the remaining school year.

By individual projects on various European subjects, the seventh grade group is climaxing their social science unit on Europe. Each pupil has selected the country most fascinating to him. Correlated with language an outline on a phase of the country is being prepared to be used as a guide in presenting an oral report.

Correlated with U. S. history the eighth graders saw a visual presentation of "The Industrial Revolution." The film portrayed the spinning jenny, the power looms, the cotton gin, the steam engine, and many other later inventions which brough about the Industrial Revolution. History brought to life on the screen is more effective in teaching than any other medium.

Crocker basketball champions received individual medals today for having won the district championship of the season. The students winning medals were: Tom Costello, Jack Phillips, Jim Herman, Martin Verese, David Martinez, Jim Francis, Joe Lewkowitz, Dick Kalinin, Billy Valentino, and Ed Christianson.

The American Legion Essay Awards were presented to four students at Crocker. At an outdoor assembly, Student Body President Shirley Filippo presented Mrs. Trier, Americanism essay chairman, and Mrs. Harris, first vice-president of the American Legion Auxiliary. On the platform were the student body officers, the student councils representatives, and Supt. Snell, whom students feel very proud to report has been present at every one of their outdoor assemblies this past school year. Superintendent Snell always leads the pledge to the flag for the student body. Among the students receiving awards were: Elementary level — Astrid Chun Fat, 1st prize; Harold Dimond, 2nd prize; Harry Miller, honorable mention. Primary level: Michael Rogerson, 1st prize.

In connection with their social studies work, H5 and L6 are making a series of maps in color, showing the physical and political aspects of North, South, and Central America.

Multiplication of decimals is the feature o fthe arithmetic period now. The L6 class is showing great interest mastering this important fundamental.

Two pupils of Room 6 have transferred. Andrew Clemens has moved to Bradley, California, and Frances Magee has gone to Jonesboro, Kansas.

H7 and L8 of Room 6 are studying about the growth of big corporations and the formation of labor unions.

The L7 and H7 have been taking a trip into Africa with Demetrius, a twelve-year-old Greek boy of ancient times. They started from Athens, sailing the Mediterranean until they beheld a tremendous lighthouse, one of the wonders of the world. Today this lighthouse is still a mammoth structure, comparable in height to San Francisco's own Golden Gate Towers. Only in those times donkeys instead of elevators carried people to the top.

Robert Stone, an eighth grader at Crocker was recently a guest of Rear Admiral Joseph E. Stika, commander of the Western Area and commander of the 12th Coast Guard District, at Coast Guard headquarters in San Francisco. Bob has been interested in the Coast Guard for some time and was pleased to have the opportunity to meet Admiral Stika.

The Crocker student was taken on a tour of the headquarters by one of the officers stationed there. The tour included the communications office, where methods of wire and wireless communications and relays were demonstrated. Bob returned with several booklets describing the service, and a greater interest than ever in the Coast Guard.

JEFFERSON

Fred Bertetta, a seventh grader at Jefferson, has recently returned from a trip which included New York, Florida and Mexico. In a report to the class this week, Fred described the motor trip and told of the many places he had visited and the things he had seen.

The route the party took led them to New York, where they stopped only a short time. Philadelphia was next on the list where a visit with friends allowed Fred several days to see many of the colonial landmarks he had studied about in his history books. From Philadelphia the group went to Florida. In his review of the tour Fred told his class of each of the places they had stopped and of the great variation between different parts of the country in regard to architecture, agriculture, types of trees and plants, and other things. He made it easy for the class to follow his progress by pointing out on the wall map each of the places he was describing.

From Florida Fred went to Texas, then to New Mexico, then over the border to Mexico. His descriptions of the novelty of "bargaining" for articles, instead of merely paying the price stated by the seller, was most interesting to the class. Members of the class deluged Fred with questions which he answered quite completely.

The last part of the trip brought the group through Arizona and then back to California. The seventh grade class has decided that a trip like this would be the best way to study geography, and enjoyed the story of the journey very much.

The sixth grade is continuing their journey through the Pacific. Although this tour is purely imaginary the class has learned many things about the places they have visited. They have learned that the peoples of other countries, although they differ from us in dress and manner, are much like us in many ways.

The children have brought many pieces of jewelry made of shells and silver, as well as some dolls and ornaments for the home. All these things from Japan, the present "stop" on the tour, have added to the enjoyment of the journey. Bonnie McAvoy, Aline De Boton, Faye Orovitz, Gwen Anthony, Eileen De Bernardi, Ronnie Poston and Frank Bertoli have brought most of the displayed articles.

Jerrold Bocci, Roger Pessagno and Arthur Hollingsworth brought some reports about the history of aviation and the difference between automobiles and airplane motors.

This week the fourth grade pupils were entertained during their "story hour" by Elaine Gaggero, Nancy Hopper and Edith Detweiler. Each of these children read very interesting stories they had procured from the library. After the girls had finished the reading, the class discussed the stories.

The boys and girls of the third grade at Jefferson have written a play about the harvest festival of the Pueblo Indians. They have increased their knowledge of Indian customs through the work they have done on the play.

Several new children have been welcomed to the third grade. Dick and Phyllis Tomlinson have transferred from Marin county and Betty Jane Lucas from San Pedro.

The second grade has been working on a project concerning the importance of health and safety to themselves and their community. Good citizenship, within the room, on the playground and at home, is being emphasized. The children are bringing pictures which will demonstrate the "citizenship" topic.

The high first grade took a trip to the Colma branch library on Monday, May 23. Everyone in the class brought his lunch, which was eaten at school. At one o'clock the forty children and their teacher walked to the library.

On the way the children observed and discussed many interesting things such as the train station and different types of trees and flowers.

Mrs. O'Roourke, the librarian, greeted them on arrival at the library. She had a very interesting display of children's books with miniature animals which represented each story. She read "The Croked Man" to the class.

The next day Susan Detweiler brought a book from the library about "The Little Duck Who Liked Rain." The children drew very clever pictures about the story.

Another Jefferson first grade has been enjoying stories and music during their story period. Such records as "Red Riding Hood," "Puss in Boots" and "Sleeping Beauty" told these stories and added musical background which the children enjoyed. At the conclusion of the program the children enacted the roles of Red Riding Hood, the wolf, Puss in Boots, the Sleeping Beauty and the Prince.

Student chiefs of the Junior Safety Patrols were entertained at the second annual Safety Patrol dinner sponsored by Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of school. The purpose of the dinner, which was held at the McKinley School in Redwood City, was to offer recognition to student leaders for the excellent work they are doing, both in the leadership of their patrols and in protecting the lives of their schoolmates. Present among various civic and official groups interested in safety was the chief of each police department in San Mateo county. The faculty advisor to each patrol also attended. The boys representing Jefferson School were eighth grade students, Captain Martin Carovano, Lieutenants Alfred Schenone and Edward Fuchs. Chief Sunderland, representing the Daly City Police Department and Miss Marie Traynor, principal of Jefferson School, accompanied the boys.

A never-to-be-forgotten day in the minds of Jefferson eighth graders was the recent trip to Muir Woods. From start to finish every moment of the day was filled with fun and good times. There was the departure at 9 a.m. from Jefferson School in a caravan of cars . . . (wasn't that in itself a big moment to be able to start out on such an excursion when everyone else had to work?) . . . then along the Park Presidio boulevard, across the always fascinating Golden Gate Bridge, over the Marin highways, with the magic of green hills to make you know you were really in the country, and then before you knew it, there you were at the very entrance to the majestic Muir Woods. The big trees, the fern covered slopes, the running streams, the wild flowers, the souvenir shop and the forest ranger who welcomed the group, all these were part of an intriguing experience.

Then came the hike to Rattlesnake Camp and along the Dipsea Trail. Songs, fun, snap-shots and the all-important picnic lunch crowded the happy hours along the trails. Miss Marie Traynor, principal of Jefferson School and eighth grade teacher, sponsored the trip and was assisted in the transportation problem by the following mothers who very kindly gave their time and drove their cars . . . Mrs. John Carovano, Mrs. John Detweiler, Mrs. Edwin Duncan, Mrs. Ramon Gomez, Mrs. John Dennis and Mrs. John Van Vliet.

All good things must come to an end and a weary but happy group of boys and girls were glad to climb into the waiting cars and settle back in comfort for the return trip.

DON'T DRIVE YOURSELF

When sleepy, worried, nervous or depressed, don't drive your car; let someone else take the wheel, urges the California State Automobile Association. Highway safety demands constant alertness and your undivided attention to your driving.

BIBLE COMMENT FOR JUNE 19

Jesus' Life Holds Personal Message For Each of Us

LIGHT, glory and triumph soon followed upon the darkness and apparent defeat of the trial, humiliation and cruel death of Jesus on the cross. Resurrection joy and new faith, courage and inspiration came to the disciples as they first heard the amazing news of the opened tomb, and then met their risen Lord face to face.

The glorious experience that was theirs may be yours and mine. The Resurrection of Jesus has a direct and personal message for each of us. The word that it brings to us is the word that Jesus had already spoken to the disciples before His death: "Because I live, ye shall live also" (John 14:19).

That word of faith, and hope, and life, does not come from the Resurrection as a single, or isolated, event. It is the message of the whole life and mission of Jesus. He rose from the dead because of the life that was in Him, and it is because He imparts that life to us that we have hope of immortality. "The gift of God is eternal life."

The future life is related to the present life, not in mere continuance, but in the preservation, fulfillment, and enlargement of all that is best here. The noblest expression of it is in I John 3:2: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is."

Paul speaks of "the power of the Resurrection." The Resurrection of Jesus is not an ancient, isolated instance of a man surviving death, but the persistent, ongoing power of a life-giving life that offers to man eternal horizons, and illimitable outlets of growth, achievement, and triumph. It is a call to be "always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord." (I Corinthians 15:58).

Women Join S.F. Police Force

Eight women, formally designated as "policewomen," for the first time in San Francisco's history were sworn into service by Chief of Police Michael Mitchell this week.

Women who have served with the department previously were always under special designations. The eight new policewomen were taken from civil service lists and, after an eight-week training course at the police academy, will be assigned to the juvenile bureau, Chief Mitchell announced.

Something new has been added to the popular "Tallulah the Tube" jingle heard every weekday after CBS's "Rosemary." With the same words, and still sung by pert Fran Barber, the jingle has now been recorded with an all-star eight-piece band, including some of the best names in the business. Four of the eight: Billy Butterfield, a band-leader in his own right, famous for the trumpet solo in Artie Shaw's "Stardust"; Will Bradley, who wrote and recorded "Beat Me, Daddy, Eight to the Bar," on trombone; Toots Mondello, who has played his saxophone for both Dorseys, Benny Goodman, and many others; and Trigger Alpert, former Glenn Miller bass player. The song will also be heard as a separate spot announcement.

Charlie Fisher, able young director of NBC's "Portia Faces Life," suffered double agonies through the month of May. Right up to the 19th, when "Portia's" baby was born in the script, Charlie had the job of coaching her in her portrayal of convincing distress. The illusion of reality was undoubtedly greatly heightened by the fact that Mr. Fisher's own wife was expecting a baby on almost that same day!

In a recent interview, John Raby, who plays the part of Harry Davis in NBC's "When a Girl Marries," was asked to talk about any experiences he might have had in Hollywood. "The only event I remember clearly," said John, "was the time I was bitten by a trained Police Dog at Warner Brothers. I met the same dog later at a night club —he was a performer, I, a guest— and darned if the dog didn't seem to recognize me!"

Horse and Mule Statistics

This year, for the first time since 1870, the nation's horse and mule population dropped below the 10-million mark. The department of agriculture estimates it at 6,607,000 horses and 2,544,000 mules.

Later on his visit, Jimmie asked to see the "chocolate milk cows." Alas, Farmer Klock had none in stock.

Barbara Biagini Wins Scholarship

Miss Barbara Biagini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Biagini of 467 Knowles avenue, was awarded a scholarship to the University of California, it was announced last night at the Jefferson high school graduation exercises.

The scholarship is sponsored by the California Alumnae Association. Barbara is a graduate of the Woodrow Wilson elementary school as well as the Jefferson high school.

Fur Goodness Sake

Spectators sighed when actress Diana Lynn modeled this Imperial Chinchilla coat in Los Angeles—who wouldn't? But they gasped when they heard its price—and for good reason. The warm garment sells for a cool $70,000. Some 250 chinchillas made the supreme sacrifice to fashion what is described as "the world's costliest coat."

Mrs. Sylvia Eastham of 256 North Parkview avenue, nurse for the Jefferson Elementary school district for the past two years, will leave soon for Chicago.

Arnold Panella Feature Speaker At Insurance Meeting

Arnold L. Panella, Daly City, was featured as a speaker June 15 at an educational conference of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, at the Ahwahnee, Yosemite National Park. Panella was qualified as a national delegate to the conference from among the country-wide field force of more than 2000 representatives.

At the conference he took part in a Round Table discussion on the subject "Tips From the Tops." At the sessions, held this week, methods for inproving service to the public will be studied.

Hollywood Stars To Judge Redwood Queen Contest

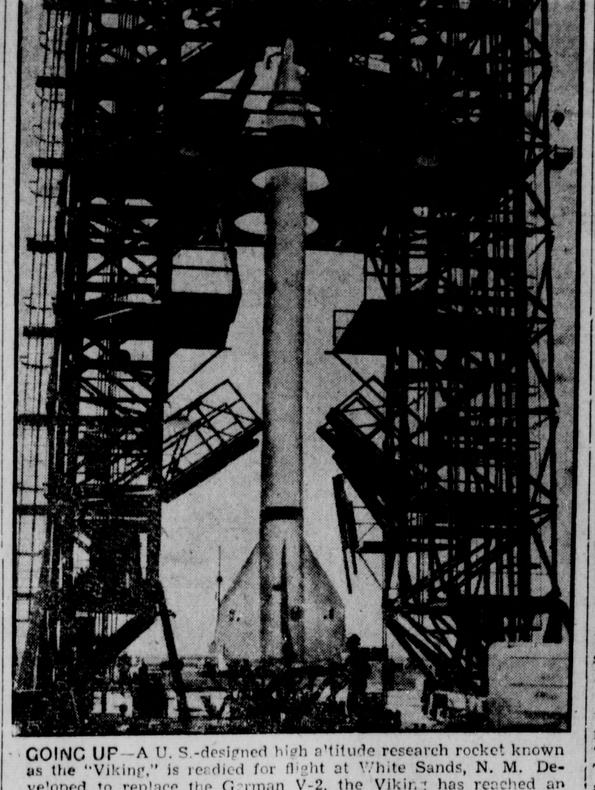
REDWOOD CITY — Announcement today that two Hollywood celebrities would judge the 1949 Redwood City Rodeo Queen Contest boosted enthusiasm in this year's three-day Fourth of July celebration in that city.

John P. Stegeman and Robert V. Spillers, co-chairmen of the Queen Contest Committee, returned this week from Hollywood where they obtained the services of the two movieland personalities. The movie people asked that their identity be withheld until the date of the judging, June 25.

Seven young women seeking the title of queen this year. They include Patricia Bolster, of Burlingame; Elsie Lopes, Millbrae; Janice Day, Beverly Swenson, and Clyda Rosa, Redwood City; Mary Alice Perkins, San Bruno, and Jody Smith, Palo Alto.

Preparations are being made by the 20-30 Club of Redwood City to handle more than 1000 at the annual Queens Ball. A new industrial building has been obtained which will provide 50,000 square feet of dancing space, according to Jack Wallace, program chairman.

Redwood City goes western next week (June 18) with the "Kick-Off Barbecue," sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Mounted Patrol of San Mateo county, which heralds the beginning of "Dress-Up Days" in the community. From June 18 until the rodeo ends the evening of July 4, residents and merchants will don jeans and 10-gallon hats, and the city will be decorated in observance of the event which annually attracts more than 150,000 persons to the San Mateo county seat.



GOING UP—A U. S.-designed high altitude research rocket known as the "Viking," is readied for flight at White Sands, N. M. Developed to replace the German V-2, the Viking has reached an altitude of 51½ miles, and a speed of 2250 mph. The steel "drawbridge" structure surrounding it enables technicians to reach all parts of the rocket easily from platforms, and is moved away for the launching.

Stern Grove Opening Attracts Throngs

Opening of the annual summer session of symphony concerts, operas, and ballets at Sigmund Stern Grove this week drew a record throng to the scenic glade at Sloat boulevard and 19th avenue, it was reported by the San Francisco Recreation Commission.

In cooperation with the commission, the Stern Grove Music Festival committee from June 12 to September 18 presents a series of Sunday programs which, while relatively new to the city, have become one of its finest traditions for residents and visitors alike.

The programs are free and the audience sits about on benches or on the grass, "picnicing with music." As many as 20,000 have attended some of the operatic productions.

MacArthur Stamps

The New Philippine republic honors Gen. Douglas MacArthur with three new stamps, each bearing his portrait. The stamps are four centavors gray-violet, 6-c red and 16-c blue.

$1.20 For Each Set Of Camel Ears

Australian vermin boards are paying $1.20 for each set of camel ears in northwestern Australia, where herds of wild camels are roaming over 90,000 square miles of territory.

Stockmen who organized the drive to exterminate the several hundred wild camels because of damage of windmills, sheep and cattle watering troughs, and fences, have found the animals are exceedingly hard to catch.

Camels were introduced to western Austalia from India in 1870 and used by gold prospectors for transporting ore from the mills to the coast. Camels are still used on the 800-mile stock route leading to Wiluna.

Automatic Fuel

Gas is the most completely automatic fuel. Gas heating units require no attention from the owner from season's beginning to season's ending. They do, however, require at least an annual servicing by an experienced heating contractor.

Veterans Weekly News Column

In order to receive prompt replies to letters addressed to the Veterans Administration, veterans are urged to "write right" by fully identifying themselves.

The annual volume of mail received by VA totals more than 125,000,000 pieces.

The VA District 12 area (California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii) with more than 1,500,000 veterans received more than 14,000,000 pieces of mail during the 12 months ending May 31.

Each piece of incoming mail requires an answer or some administrative action. With the cases of a million and a half veterans, plus thousands of dependents, in their files it is imperative that each veteran fully identify himself when writing the VA.

If the veteran observes the following simple rules he will expedite his correspondence with VA:

1. Write only when absolutely necessary.

2. When writing, include full name, Army or Navy service number, address and C-number (if assigned one by VA), or N-number (if letter pertains to G.I. insurance).

Each day's mail brings some letters which defy reply. Letters are received with only the signature of "John Johnson" or "Sam Smith." There are thousands of Johnsons and Smiths in VA files.

Question: Is there any way I may get a waiver or an adjustment on the amount I owe VA on my defaulted GI loan? The default resulted through no fault of mine.

Answer: A Committee of Waivers and Compromises has been established in each VA regional office and at central office in Washington, D. C., with authority to determine in each case whether all or part of the amount paid in settlement of a veteran's defaulted loan is to be waived, collected or otherwise adjusted. The Central Office Committee will have original jurisdiction cases involving more than $2,500; the Regional Office Committees, in cases below $2,500.

Question: Does a veteran have to be honorably discharged to be awarded monetary benefits by VA?

Answer: Under existing laws, it is not necessary for a veteran to have an honorable discharge to be awarded benefits. However, it is necessary that he be discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

Question: As a World War II veteran, will I have to pay a fee to have someone represent me in my claim for benefits for VA?

Answer: If you are represented by an official of an accredited service organization or the American Red Cross, there is no fee. If you are represented by a lawyer or agent who has been admitted to practice before VA, such attorney or agent is permitted to charge $10 in an original claim, or $2 in a claim for increased benefits.

Cruising Down the River

Scenes like this are commonplace throughout Northern Ontario and Quebec, Canada, as lumberjacks herd their annual log drives down flooded streams to feed the pulp and paper mills which play an important part in the Canadian economy. These men are driving a winter's harvest of logs down Tamacine River, north of Ottawa.

KEEP SPEED DOWN

Wise motorists always keep their speed down to the point where they have complete control of their cars in all driving situations, points out the public safety department of the National Automobile Club. They know that as their speed goes up, their chances of staying safe go down.
